

Bull Dogs

By Danielle

Bull Dogs are black with patches of brown, tan, and red. They are about 50 to 55 pounds. They are medium size. Bull Dogs are mammals.

Bull Dogs wear muzzles if they are bad. Bull Dogs eat dog food. Some people call them English Bulldogs.

Puppies cannot see or hear and they are born helpless. The first thing that the puppies smell is the mother licking it. They can't leave their mother until there 6 weeks old.

Bibliography

<http://www.EnchantedLearning.com/subjects/mammals/dog/Bulldog.shtml>

Dogs. Kids Discover. August 2000